COSTUMED 5K

Host a costumed 5k fun run where people dress up to match your theme. Harry Potter, zombies, a turkey trot? Put a fresh spin on a traditional 5k race and turn it into a team relay race. With so many options to choose from while having fun and raising money.

SILENT AUCTION

Reach out to your networks and collect prizes to auction off. Get creative with the prizes you collect. A home cooked dinner provided by a talented chef, or a massage at a local spa, a full house cleaning or car detailing are popular items that generate a lot of bids.

TRIVIA NIGHT

In person or virtual- trivia nights are easy to organize, affordable to host, and can be customized to any audience. Ask participants to form teams and raise a minimum amount as their registration fee. Group people into teams and see who can get bragging rights and raise the most money.

EXERCISE CLASS

Whether you love yoga, weight lifting, cardio or tennis, host an afternoon where participants donate and receive a class from a local expert. Reach out to your local gym or fitness community to see who might be willing to donating their skills for a good cause.

VIDEO GAME FUNDRAISING

Turn your video gaming community into a force for good. Invite friends to join you in a gaming night and challenge them to collect donations from friends or family. Individual or team contests can drum up excitement for your event.

DRESS DOWN DAY

A fun way to raise money at your school or workplace is to host a dress down day. Charge your classmates or workmates a small amount so they can dress down for the day. Make it extra fun by making it a pajama or costume day. Have a few contests like silliest pajamas or funniest costume to get everyone excited.

HEAD (OR BEARD) SHAVING

Gather pledges to shave your head or your long beard to raise money for the Cambridge Food Bank.

BOTTLE DRIVE

Collecting refundable bottles and cans is an easy- no cost way to raise funds.
